CAMP DIRECTOR

Adam Sayers, Head Coach
ETSU Women's Soccer

In two years as head coach of the Lady Bucs, Sayers has posted a mark of 24-11-1 (.681) overall, the best two-year record in program history. This past year, the Lady Buccaneers posted their second consecutive 12-win season, recording a 12-6-0 mark, including a record of 6-3-0 in conference play. The Lady Bucs boasted the nation's leading goal scorer in Ramey Kerns (2012 A-Sun Player of the Year) and Sarah Zadrazil (2012 A-Sun Freshman of the Year), and earned a No. 4 seed in the 2012 Atlantic Sun Tournament Championship for the right to host a post-season game for the first time in school history.

In his first year at ETSU, Sayers led the Lady Bucs to a 12-5-1 (7-1-1 A-Sun) record en route to the program's first-ever Atlantic Sun regular season championship. Through ETSU's championship campaign, the Lady Bucs set the new program record for goals (43) and points (118) in a season, earning multiple postseason awards as Genna Petersen was named the program's first Atlantic Sun Player of the Year. Sayers was voted A-Sun Coach of the Year.

Sayers holds both the UEFA "A" Coaching License and the USSF "A" Coaching License. He is also an NSCAA qualified goalkeeper coach. In addition to his coaching qualifications, Sayers holds a PhD in Human Performance, and is an NSCA Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist. He is also an Olympic Development Program (ODP) state head coach.

Debs Brereton, Assistant Coach
ETSU Women's Soccer

In two seasons, Brereton has helped the Lady Bucs combine for a 24-11-1 record, including consecutive postseason berths. This past year, Brereton helped coach the Lady Bucs to their second consecutive 12-win campaign, tying the program mark once more for wins in a season. In her first season at ETSU alongside head coach Adam Sayers, the Lady Bucs posted a 12-5-1 overall record as well as a 7-1-1 mark in Atlantic Sun matches. The 12 overall wins and seven conference wins both tied the program record for wins in a season, while the team netted a program best 43 goals en route to its first ever regular season championship.

Brereton owns a UEFA Level Two Coaching License, a USSF "B" License and is a head coach for the Tennessee Olympic Development Program. Brereton holds a Master of Science in Health and Human Performance.
