About the Buccaneers

The East Tennessee State Buccaneers are winners of two straight Southern Conference North Division titles. The Buccaneers have won all eight of their games at home this season, won their only neutral-site game, and picked up their first win on the road last Saturday at VMI. Junior forwards Jerald Fields and Zakee Wadood, as well as sophomore guard Tiras Wade and freshman guard Tim Smith are leading the Bucs offensively. Wade is averaging 16.9 points a game, while Wadood is averaging 13.6 a game, Smith is averaging 11.1 a game and Fields is pitching in 10.6 a contest. Wadood leads the team in the paint with 7.4 rebounds per game. Smith leads the team with 3.75 assists per game. East Tennessee State had won four straight regular season road games last season before dropping their last five contests to South Carolina, UNC Wilmington, Vanderbilt, Virginia, South Florida and Appalachian State. The Buccaneers have won 12 consecutive home games, dating back to last season.

Quick Shots

Freshman guard Tim Smith has made the most of his first nine career starts by averaging 11.4 points, 4.5 assists, 3.4 steals and 4.1 rebounds since moving into the starting lineup ... Sophomore guard Tiras Wade has led the Bucs in scoring in eight of the last 11 games ... The Buccaneers were a preseason pick by both the coaches and media to win the Southern Conference's North Division ... ETSU's eight-game win streak last year was its best such streak of the season and was tied with Utah State for the eighth best streak in the nation at the time ... ETSU has won 14 or better games in four straight seasons and at least 17 in three of the last four ... The Bucs won 10 SoCon games for a second straight season a year ago, one of only two schools to do so (UNCG is the other) ... ETSU finished its home schedule with an 12-1 mark last season ... Ryan Lawson led the SoCon in free throw percentage last season ... In its eight-game win streak last year, ETSU won its games by an average of 14.6 points ... Only twice in the streak did the Bucs win by less than 10 points ... ETSU had at least three players in double figures scoring in every game during the streak ... Wadood finished among the SoCon leaders in seven categories.

Bucs back on the Tube

The Buccaneer win against College of Charleston (1/13/03) was ETSU's first game on CSS this season, and their second televised game overall ... ESPN2 visited Johnson City on Jan. 4, as ETSU's game against UNC Greensboro was shown live on national television ... It was the first time an ETSU game had been televised nationally since the 1995-96 season, when ESPN covered a close, 73-70, Buccaneer loss to Tennessee State from Memorial Center ... ETSU will be featured in one more regionally televised game this season, on the road at Chattanooga on Feb. 1 (Fox Sports South).

Last time out

LEXINGTON, Va. (Jan. 18, 2002) — East Tennessee State shot 63 percent from the floor in the second half to outlast VMI, 67-62, Saturday afternoon from Cameron Hall in Lexington, Va. Freshman guard Ben Rhoda led five Bucs in double figures with 19 points. ETSU led, 63-52, when junior forward Jerald Fields hit a free throw with 2:46 left, but VMI countered with an 8-0 run to slice the lead to three when Richard Little converted a layup at the 1:20 mark. Fields answered with a jumper 27 second later to push the Buc margin to 65-60, and ETSU hit two of four free throws in the final :23 to keep distance and post its seventh straight win over the Keydets. Rhoda was joined in double figures by Fields and senior guard Ryan Lawson -- each with 11, while sophomore slasher Tiras Wade and junior forward Zakee Wadood each scored 10 points for the Bucs, who won their third straight game while retiring a six-game road losing streak. Tim Allmond and Ben Rand paced VMI with 13 points each, and Allmond logged his second-career double double with 10 rebounds, matching his career-high and marking the second straight game he has pulled down 10 boards. Freshman center Tadas Mankevicius scored a career-high 11 points. Both teams owned seven point leads in the first half and the game was tied four times before ETSU assumed a 24-23 lead at halftime. Both teams shot the ball miserably in the opening half - ETSU was 23.3% on 7 of 30 shooting, while VMI could muster only 8 of 28 shots for 28.6%. The Bucs pounded the ball inside in the second half and shot 63.2% (12-19) after intermission, exploiting VMI's depleted front-line corps which was further aggravated when senior center Zach Batte departed the game with his fourth foul with 16:29 left in the second half. ETSU hit six "and one" layups in the final 14 minutes of regulation and converted three of those into three-point plays. VMI led 36-29 when Tim Allmond converted a three-point play with 13:59 left, but the Bucs responded with an 8-0 run to surge ahead. The spurt was keyed by back-to-back three-point plays by Wadood and Rhoda. The game was tied four more times before freshman forward Brad Nuckles nailed a free throw to put East Tennessee State up for good, 43-42, with 10:30 remaining. The lead grew to as much as 11 as the Bucs continued to pound the ball inside - earning trips to the free throw line along the way. ETSU converted 26 of 36 free throws for the game while VMI hit 16 of 24 from the stripe. ETSU's 1-3-1 and 2-3 zone defenses kept the Keydets off-balance for most of the second half until VMI's late game charge. A pair of Tadas Mankevicius free throws cut the deficit to 65-62 with :23 left, but the Keydets could come no closer. The Buccaneers will next travel to Spartanburg, S.C., to face Wofford Saturday evening at 7 p.m.

Buccaneers Against the Terriers

East Tennessee State has played Wofford 34 times in school history, holding a 29-5 advantage. The series began in 1958 and the Bucs have won seven straight against the Terriers.

Last time against the Terriers

Johnson City, Tenn. (Jan. 23, 2002) — Led by senior Dimeco Childress' 20 points, East Tennessee State snapped a two-game losing streak, taking a 71-58 win over Wofford in Southern Conference men's basketball action. The win extended ETSU's home winning streak to 18 games, a streak that is currently the eighth longest in the nation in Division I. East Tennessee State jumped out to quick five point lead two minutes in at 7-2 on a steal and a layup by freshman Tiras Wade, but Wofford quickly regained its composure and tied the game at 7-7 on a layup by Lee Nixon. Leading 19-18 with 8:22 left in the half, ETSU went on a 14-6 run, led by Zakee Wadood's seven points, to take a 33-24 lead with 3:26 left. Wofford climbed right back into it, outscoring the Bucs 5-0 for the rest of the half to cut the lead to 33-29. ETSU could not extend its lead in the second half, and only led 46-45 after a pair of free throws by Wofford's Justin Stephens with 11:42 left in the game. Just when Wofford looked as if they were ready to take a lead, ETSU got hot at the free throw line. After the Terriers pulled to within one, ETSU hit 10-of-12 free throws over the next seven minutes. With the Buccaneer defense holding Wofford to just one field goal in that time, ETSU was up 60-49 with four minutes to play. Wofford could only manage to cut the lead down to eight points in the final minutes and the Buccaneers got a pair of dunks from Wade and Childress to ice the win. Childress led all scorers with his 20 points, the seventh time he has reached the 20-point mark this season. Wadood had a career-high 16 rebounds to go with 17 points and four blocks, his fifth double-double of the season. Wade finished the night with 16 points for the Bucs. Grant Sterley led Wofford with 17 points. Mike Lenzy added a double-double of 12 points and 11 boards, tying him with Wadood for the most double-doubles in the SoCon this season. Lee Nixon also chipped in 12 points for the Terriers.

Buccaneers against the Wildcats

ETSU has met Davidson 40 times and is 16-24 against the Wildcats. The first meeting between the two teams came in 1961 and the Bucs won the teams' last meeting (see below).

Last time against the Wildcats

Johnson City, Tenn. (Feb. 9, 2002) – Senior Dimeco Childress hit the 30-point mark for the second straight time at home, this time coming up with a career-high 36 points to lead East Tennessee State to an 85-78 win over Davidson in men's Southern Conference basketball action. The win was the fourth straight for the Bucs and pulled them within two games of the first place Wildcats in the North Division standings. At the beginning of the contest it looked as if it might be a long night for East Tennessee State as the Bucs were held scoreless for the first 4:45 of the game. But Davidson could only manage to get a 4-0 lead in that time, and ETSU jumped back into the game on the strength of some impressive foul shooting. Shooting just 35.7 percent from the floor in the first half, the Bucs made up for it with a 20-of-21 (.952) performance from the free throw line, including hitting their first 16 attempts. Leading 10-8, ETSU rattled off an 11-5 run take a 21-13 lead with nine minutes left in the half. Childress hit four free throws during the run, with Jerald Fields adding a trey. ETSU held on to its lead until Davidson got hot from three-point range late in the half. Trailing by six, the Wildcats got three treys, two from Michael Bree, that highlighted a 17-5 run the gave them a 38-32 lead with 3:16 left. ETSU answered, however, closing out the half on a 9-2 run that gave the Bucs a 41-40 edge at the intermission on a pair of free throws from Ryan Lawson with 13 seconds left. ETSU picked up the pace at the start of the second half. Davidson took a brief two point lead, but the Bucs went on a 15-2 run that gave them a 60-49 lead at the 12:00 mark. Trailing 67-57, the Wildcats clawed back into it, holding the Bucs without a field goal over a three-minute span to cut the lead to 69-67 on a layup by Chris Pearson with five minutes to play. That was as close as Davidson would get, with ETSU upping the lead back to seven points on a trey by Childress at the 2:54 mark. ETSU then hit 11-of-12 free throws down the stretch to hold off the Wildcats and claim the win. Davidson shot 50.9 percent for the game to ETSU's 35.6 effort, but the Bucs shot .929 from the foul line, hitting 39-of-42 shots to hold Davidson at bay, setting a new school record for free throws made in a game. The previous mark was 36 set against Furman on Feb. 13, 1992. ETSU also had a 37-30 edge on the boards and took advantage of 20 Davidson turnovers, scoring 18 points off the miscues. Childress hit just 10-of-21 shots from the field, but buried all 14 of his free throws to account for his 36 points. Fields added 18 points, eight rebounds and four steals for the Bucs, while Lawson added 14 points. Zakee Wadood led all players with nine rebounds. Davidson placed four players in double figures, led by Bree's 19 points. Wayne Bernard had 15, while Martin Ides added 14 and Chris Pearson chipped in 12.

Home Sweet Dome

Despite having its 18-game home winning streak snapped against Chattanooga last year, ETSU's home court advantage is still formidable ... Since dropping that game to the Mocs, the Bucs have begun a new streak, winning 12 straight home games ... Going back to the 1998-'99 season, the Bucs have gone 49-13 in home contests, a mark that improves to 32-3 going back through the 2000-2001 season ... During head coach Ed DeChellis' tenure at ETSU, the Bucs have gone 64-22 at home.

Bucs lead nation in steals

Teams that have played ETSU this season know they will face many different types of pressure defenses from the Bucs. Those efforts to challenge an opponent's offensive schemes have been successful so far in 2002-'03, as the Bucs currently lead the nation in steals per game with 13.1 a contest. The Bucs 210 steals in 16 games is leading Georgetown, which is second on the list. The Bucs strong team numbers have been powered by individual efforts from Zakee Wadood and Tim Smith. Wadood is currently second in the nation with 3.6 steals a game and Smith is tied for 10th with 2.9 a contest.

A Tampa Homecoming

The trip to Tampa, Fla. for the South Florida Shootout was a homecoming for ETSU sophomore guard Tiras Wade ... Wade attended Tampa Tech High School, and was first-team all-state during a senior season in which he averaged 29.9 points and 8.2 rebounds per game ... Wade has continued his dynamic play at ETSU, leading the team in scoring this season with 17.5 points per game ... Two other Buccaneers returned home to the state of Florida for the tournament, junior forward Jerald Fields (Gainesville) and sophomore James Anthony (Brandon) ... Wade performed well in the tournament, helping ETSU to a second-place finish by leading the team in scoring on Dec. 28 against Belmont (15) and on Dec. 29 against South Florida (13) ... For his efforts, Wade was named to the All-Tournament team.

Wadood Back With a Vengeance

After missing ETSU's game with UVA-Wise on Dec. 14 due to an injury, junior forward Zakee Wadood has returned with 10 solid games against Virginia, Coastal Carolina, Belmont, South Florida, Juniata, UNC Greensboro, Appalachian State, The Citadel, College of Charleston and VMI ... Wadood was questionable against the Cavaliers, but came off the bench in Charlottesville to score 18 points on 6-of-9 from the floor, with nine rebounds, five blocked shots and six steals ... He returned against Coastal Carolina and led the Buccaneers with 21 points while adding two assists, two blocks and three steals ... In these 10 games, Wadood has averaged 15.1 points and 7.9 rebounds.

Player of the Week

Buccaneer sophomore guard/forward Tiras Wade won his first Southern Conference Player-of-the-Week award Dec. 17, following his 34-point performance against UVA-Wise on Dec. 14 ... East Tennessee State players took home three such awards last season, with Dimeco Childress winning all three.

Off to a Fast Start

Freshman guard Tim Smith has made the most of his first 12 career starts by averaging 11.9 points, 4.5 assists, 3.4 steals and 4.1 rebounds since moving into the starting lineup ... In his first career start, Smith scored 20 points, dished out six assists and had five steals in 31 minutes against UNCA ... Smith has scored in double figures in 11 of ETSU's first 15 games, and in 10 of 13 games in which he has started ... Smith's quickness has been a burden for many teams and his ability to create offensive opportunities has been uncanny ... ETSU has gone 9-3 in games that Smith has started this season.

Against the Big Boys

ETSU's close games with South Carolina, Vanderbilt and Virginia are proof positive that the Bucs are poised to hold their own against major programs ... The Bucs have not beaten a larger program since a 68-53 win over Virginia Tech in 1999-2000, but ETSU history is peppered with wins over bigger schools. Most notable are victories over N.C. State in both 1989 (92-82) and 1990 (94-91), Tennessee in 1989 (83-70) and 1991 (87-79), and Cincinnati in 1990 (90-79) ... But the most memorable game for the Buccaneers against a major program came in the 1992 NCAA Tournament, where No. 14 seed ETSU defeated No. 3 seed Arizona 87-80 ... The Bucs went on to face the Fab Five from Michigan and lost 102-90, wrapping up a 24-7 season.

Lawson almost "Mr. Perfect" from the line

Senior Ryan Lawson is the best free-throw shooter (by percentage) in the history of ETSU basketball. A year ago, Lawson hit on 54-of-58 free throw attempts. This year, Lawson was perfect from the line before missing a shot at the charity stripe against College of Charleston. The senior from Rogersville is currently 19-of-21 from the line this year for a 91 percent clip from the line. For his career, Lawson is hitting on 138-of-156 shots for a percentage of .885.

Tiras takes the lead

Guard Tiras Wade is leading the way offensively for the Bucs ... Wade, a 6-foot-6, 195-pound sophomore, is averaging a team-best 16.9 points a game and is shooting 48 percent from the floor (95-of-200) ... Wade has led the Bucs in scoring in eight of ETSU's last 11 games including scoring a career-high 34 points in a 106-70 win over UVA-Wise on Dec. 14 and 32 points in a 96-94 overtime win over UNC Greensboro on Jan. 4 ... Wade was an All-SoCon Freshman Team selection a year ago.

A Record-Breaking Performance

With a 104-37 victory over Guilford on Nov. 22, East Tennessee State broke a 12-year-old record for margin of victory set in a 64-point win over Eckerd College in 1990-1991 (112-48) ... In addition, Guilford's 37 points of offense was the lowest scoring total for an ETSU opponent since the Bucs held Liberty to just 30 points in 1980-81.

Breaking the century mark

The Buccaneers have made a habit of breaking the 100-point mark this season by not letting up on teams like Guilford, UVA-Wise and Juniata. ETSU beat Guilford 104-37, dropped UVA-Wise 106-70, and dismantled Juniata 108-57 earlier this season. A year ago, the Bucs eclipsed the century mark four times, with two of those games coming against SoCon schools VMI (101-90) and Georgia Southern (100-65).

King Of Swat

Junior Jerald Fields has shown himself to be an effective shot blocker, leading the team and among the top players in the SoCon in that category over the last two seasons ... He swatted away 56 shots a year ago, which was a new school record surpassing the old mark of 53 set by Buccaneer great Greg Dennis in 1989-90 ... He is just the second individual in ETSU history to reach 50 in a season ... Fields is currently second on the all-time list for blocks with 97, having passed Justin McClellan (1993-96) with four rejections in the South Florida Shootout on Dec. 28-29 ... Zakee Wadood, with 32 rejections last season, is 8th in the single season block list.

Spreading the Wealth

In ETSU's 104-37 victory over Guilford on Nov. 22, ETSU had seven players score in double-figures ... All 10 Buccaneers that played scored, grabbed a rebound and notched at least one assist ... The Buccaneers had six players score in double figures in a game twice last season, but never had seven.

Plethora of points

By scoring 104 points against Guilford on Nov. 22, the Buccaneers scored the most points in a season debut since ETSU tallied 120 against Charleston in the 1989-90 season opener ... The game marked the first time the Bucs had scored 100 points since the Bucs defeated Georgia Southern 100-65 from Memorial Center on Feb. 2, 2002 ... The Bucs have reached the century mark two more times since, against UVA-Wise on Dec. 14 (106-70) and against Juniata (108-57) ... ETSU reached the century mark four times last season and two times in 2000-01.

An Impressive Debut

Heralded freshman Brad Nuckles got the call from ETSU head coach Ed DeChellis to start in his first collegiate game as ETSU faced Guilford on Nov. 22 from Memorial Center. Nuckles responded with a double-double in his debut with 12 points and 13 rebounds ... He was 4-7 from the field and added an assist and two blocks in 22 minutes of play ... With the start, Nuckles is the first Buccaneer freshman to start his first collegiate game since Ryan Wilson in 1996-97 ... That year was head coach Ed DeChellis' first season in Johnson City.

Uncommon Opponents

This season, head coach Ed DeChellis will guide the Buccaneers against some teams he has never faced in his head coaching career ... Those teams include Juniata College (1/2) and UNC Wilmington (11/30), and the Bucs will also meet either Long Island or South Florida in the South Florida Shootout on Dec. 29, both of which would be a new opponent for DeChellis ... Three of these schools -- Juniata, South Florida and Long Island -- will be meeting the Bucs for the first time in the program's history.

The Envelope Please

East Tennessee State came away with some of the big awards in the Southern Conference at the end of the 2002-'03 season ... Dimeco Childress was named the Player of the Year, the first Buccaneer to earn the honor since Keith Jennings won the award in 1991 ... Head coach Ed DeChellis was named the Coach of the Year for a second consecutive season ... He has led the Bucs to 24 SoCon wins in the last two seasons, more than any other conference school.

Falling Into The Trap

East Tennessee State's 1-3-1 defense has been a bright spot for the Bucs in recent years, resulting in numerous turnovers and easy scoring opportunities ... In the Bucs regular season finale last season, Appalachian State coughed up the ball 26 times against the Buc defense which the offense turned into 25 points ... It was the 10th time in 13 games that an opponent had 20 turnovers and the 16th time overall during the year ... Last season, opponents averaged nearly 20 turnovers a game, giving it up more than the Bucs 17 times ... For the season, ETSU enjoyed a +2.5 turnover margin -- the best mark in the SoCon ... This season has been similar, as Buccaneer opponents have turned the ball over 135 times, while ETSU has committed just 104 TO's.

Turnaround

ETSU had a remarkable turnaround to its season a year ago, starting the SoCon schedule 3-5 before rebounding to win its last eight and going undefeated in the month of February ... In fact, ETSU has won more SoCon games (24) than any other conference team over the last two seasons.

Lighting It Up

After experiencing a slump at the start of the SoCon season in 2002, ETSU's offense had a resurgence in the last few weeks of last season, one that the scoreboard had a hard time keeping up with ... The Bucs surged to the top of the SoCon in scoring average and were tied for 14th in the nation in scoring heading into last year's SoCon tournament ... Four times last year the squad has hit the 100-point mark, but it was the last couple of weeks of the year that the offense really got cranked up ... In their last eight games, the Bucs scored at least 85 points six times ... During the eight-game win streak the Bucs have shot better than 46 percent in all but the Davidson contest, including shooting better than 50 percent on the road in its last two games ... The Bucs have had a player hit the 20-point mark in 11 of the last 14 outings, and over the 30-point barrier in five of the last eight ... The Buccaneers have kept up their torrid scoring in 2002-03, having broken the century mark three times already this season.

A Rare Holiday Tournament

The South Florida Shootout was the first regular-season tournament for the Bucs since the 1996-97 season when they played in the Iowa State Holiday Classic in Ames, Iowa ... The Buccaneers went 0-2 in the tournament, falling to host Iowa State in the first round, 77-49, and then to Nevada, 68-49, in the consolation game ... The Bucs also played in a holiday tournament in the previous season, participating in the Super Chevy Shootout at the University of Iowa ... ETSU also finished fourth in that tournament, falling to host Iowa, 104-58, in the first round and to Mississippi, 65-50, in the consolation game.

At The Half

Prior to ETSU's, Dec. 17 game against Virginia, the Buccaneers had won each game they had led at the half, and lost every game where they trailed at the break ... But at Virginia, the Bucs led 39-35 at the half before dropping a close, 84-76, game at the hands of the Cavaliers ... ETSU is currently 10-1 when leading at the half and 0-5 when down at the break.

Dynamic Duo

Jerald Fields and Zakee Wadood make quite a tandem for ETSU in the post ... The pair were the most consistent part of the ETSU offense a year ago, with both players averaging in double figures ... Only once (at Davidson) were both held under 10 points ... The pair scored in double figures together in 19 of ETSU's 27 contests ... Against UNCG, the pair scored over 20 points in the same game for the second time in 2002-'03 ... Combined, the two accounted for 34.6 percent of the scoring and 40.2 percent of the rebounds for the Bucs, forming one of the best post tandems in the SoCon ... The pair were also 1-2 on the squad in both blocked shots and steals.

Showing Some Flash

At the beginning of the 2001-'02 season, ETSU had very little experience other than its three returning guards, forcing the newcomers to play an important role ... The one that made the most of his chance was Tiras Wade ... Looking spectacular at times by knifing through the lane, making no look passes or sinking impossible-looking scoop shots ... After being the top player off the bench for most of the season, Wade was moved into the starting lineup in the last nine games and became a leading contender for Rookie of the Year honors in the SoCon, averaging 11.3 points and 4.6 rebounds.

The 'Z' Factor

While he was not one of the newcomers last year, junior Zakee Wadood made his presence felt last year by adding some much needed punch to the Bucs inside game ... Six games into the 2002-'03 season, he took over a starting position and has not looked back, quickly placing his name among those of the top forwards in the SoCon ... He was on a tear late in the year, with double-doubles in six of his last 10 games, giving him 11 for the season -- tops in the SoCon ... In those games, the Bucs were 8-3 ... He is making a name for himself with his rebounding ability, leading the SoCon in total rebounding and in offensive rebounds ... Recently Wadood was recognized by collegeinsider.com as one of the best players in the nation that does not play for a large Division I program.

Big Players, Long Range

ETSU's starting post players, Jerald Fields and Zakee Wadood, have shown that they are more than just low post players. The two have been deadly with three-point shooting, hitting a combined 29-of-80 (.363) from behind the arc a year ago. At least one of the pair hit a trey in all of ETSU's games but eight last season. This season, Wadood has knocked down 5-of-21 three point attempts (.238) while Fields has hit 10-of-25 attempts (.400).

Graduated player Dimeco Childress scored the 1,000th point of his career on his final three-point shot at the College of Charleston. He is the 21st player in ETSU history to reach the 1,000-point mark. With 1,271 career points, he trails Mike Kretzer (1968-70) by 18 points for 7th-place on the all-time scoring charts. Junior forwards Jerald Fields and Zakee Wadood and sophomore guard Tiras Wade are all on pace to break the 1,000 point barrier.

The Florida Connection

Four current ETSU's players list Florida as their home state. Junior Jerald Fields (Gainesville) and sophomores James Anthony (Brandon) and Tiras Wade (Tampa), last year's Tampa Tribune Florida Player-of-the-Year recipient, make up the young group. Brooks and Wade were teammates at Tampa Tech High School. As a group last season, along with departed Keeton Brooks (Tampa) the Sunshine Boys averaged over 30 points and 13 rebounds a game. In 18 of the 27 games last season at least two of the group have scored in double figures.

Summary: Setting a school record for margin of victory, the East Tennessee State University men's basketball team rec'd past Old Dominion Athletic Conference foe Guilford College by a margin of 67 points in a 104-37 victory Friday night in the season opener for both teams at Memorial Center. ETSU had seven players score in double figures and held the Quakers to just 13-of-49 shooting from the floor (26.6 percent). True freshman forward Brad Nuckles, who started his first collegiate game due to the absence of junior forward Zakee Wadood because of a death in his family, showed few signs of nerves in the debut and registered a double-double effort with 12 points and 13 rebounds in 22 minutes of action. Along with Nuckles, sophomore guard James Anthony scored a team-high 15 points, while sophomore guard Tiras Wade poured in 14 points. Meanwhile, senior guard Ryan Lawson went 3-of-7 from 3-point range and fellow senior Shannon Huffstetler was a perfect 4-of-4 from the field on way to scoring 13 points each. Junior forward Jerald Fields and true freshman guard Tim Smith wrapped up the double-figure scorers for the Bucs with 10 points. The Bucs and Quakers found themselves tied 5-5 at the 18:22 mark of the first half, but ETSU's offense found its stride over the final 18 minutes of the first half, outscoring Guilford 45-10.

Summary: The Buccaneers held the lead for most of Sunday's matchup with South Carolina, but foul trouble and clutch shots led to a 71-66 Gamecock victory in the opening game of the Carolina Center in Columbia. Chuck Eidson scored 19 points and had 10 rebounds, and Carlos Powell added 15 points and 10 rebounds as the Gamecocks (1-0) played in front of 14,922 fans, the school's largest crowd ever for a men's game. The fans were nervous for most of the game, as the Buccaneers (1-1) led 59-55 after junior forward Jerald Fields' (Gainesville, Fla.) 3-pointer with 7:49 left. But Eidson and Tony Kitchings, who had nine points and 11 rebounds, got back-to-back tips to tie it at 59. After the teams traded buckets, Powell gave South Carolina the lead for good with a 3-pointer that made it 64-61 with four minutes to go. The Buccaneers would manage two more baskets down the stretch - freshman Tim Smith's (Newport News, Va.) jumper that made it 64-63 with 3:41 to go, and sophomore Sam Oatman's (Neenah, Wis.) 3-pointer with 3.1 seconds left that cut the final margin to 71-66. Fields led East Tennessee State with 16 points and 11 rebounds, and sophomore guard Tiras Wade (Tampa, Fla.) added 14 points. But Fields, Wade and junior forward Zakee Wadood (Lonoke, Ark.), who had 11 points and nine rebounds, would all foul out in a sloppy game that had 37 fouls, 48 turnovers and a double-technical when Wadood and Rolando Howell got tied up under the basket late in the game.

Summary: East Tennessee State fell behind early in the first half and could not recover as the UNC Wilmington Seahawks defeated the Bucs, 78-57, Nov. 30 at the Trask Coliseum in Wilmington, N.C. The Seahawks, playing their home opener, won their second straight and improved to 2-1 with the non-conference victory. The Buccaneers fell to 1-2 in the new season. Sophomore guard Tiras Wade had a season-high 21 points and on the day and freshman point guard Tim Smith had 14 points for ETSU. Wade also added a team-high six rebounds. UNCW senior guard Brett Blizzard led four players in double figures with 21 points, including 5-of-8 from 3-point range. Blizzard made 8-of-16 shots and added five assists to pace the Seahawks. Junior forward Anthony Terrell collected 20 points and a game-high nine rebounds, senior center Craig Callahan chipped in 12 and junior guard Tim Burnette scored 12. After building a 42-31 lead at intermission, Terrell made back-to-back baskets to open the second half and give the Seahawks a 46-31 cushion with 19:17 remaining. ETSU battled back, however, to cut the deficit to 46-39 with an eight-point run. A turnaround jumper by Jerald Fields with 16:17 left brought the Buccaneers to within seven points. However, Callahan scored a bucket from close range and Blizzard canned a trey from the right corner to push the lead back to 51-39 and the Seahawks went on another seven-point spurt to go ahead, 60-45, on Burnette's 3-pointer with 10:31 left.

Summary: With a four-point lead at halftime and the Virginia Cavaliers struggling to find a rhythm after a 13-day break from play, East Tennessee State seemed to have their Atlantic Coast Conference opponent right where they wanted them ... Then Derrick Byars showed up ... Byars, a freshman swingman, scored all but two of his 16 points in the second half as Virginia held off a major threat in an 84-76 win Tuesday over East Tennessee State ... Virginia trailed 50-49 with 13:15 left in the game before Byars hit three straight 3-pointers and then added two more lay-ups to help lift the Cavaliers to a 69-56 advantage with 5:33 left to play ... The Buccaneers (3-4), however, managed to reduce that lead to 80-76 in the final minute on a 3-point play by Tim Smith ... The Cavaliers had to make 10 of their final 12 free throws to secure the win ... Tiras Wade led the Buccaneers, picked in the preseason to win the Southern Conference's North Division, with 23 points, while Zakee Wadood added 18 and Smith had 17 ... East Tennessee State, which led by nine twice in the opening half, held a 39-35 advantage at the half. The Buccaneers connected on five of their 10 3-pointers in the opening 20 minutes and took advantage of 13 Virginia turnovers, which they converted into 21 points compared to eight for Virginia ... UVA guard Jermaine Harper entered the game with 11:08 remaining in the first half and finished with seven points in 23 minutes. It marked Harper's return to the court after being suspended since Nov. 12 for violating unspecified team rules.

Summary: Before heading off for a short Christmas break, the East Tennessee State University men's basketball team started the holidays off right with a 93-82 victory over non-conference foe Coastal Carolina Friday night at Memorial Center ... Zakee Wadood led the way for the Buccaneers with a game-high 22 points on 6-of-11 shooting from the field ... He was joined by true freshman point guard Tim Smith, who continuously impressed the crowd of 3,280 with a thrill-a-minute style that resulted in 18 points, four assists and six steals ... While Coastal Carolina held a 7-1 lead, the Bucs put together a 27-12 lead and built a 28-19 cushion by the 9:26 mark of the first half ... Another 17-4 run followed shortly after and with 4:44 left in the first half ETSU led by 21 at 44-23 ... The Chanticleers managed to cut that lead back down to 26 at 50-34 by the intermission ... Coastal Carolina slowly managed to cut the Bucs lead down, trailing by just 12 points at 61-49 with 15:43 left in the game ... However, ETSU pulled back out to a 20-point advantage when a James Anthony layup made it 77-57 with 11:23 left ... Along with Wadood and Smith, true freshman Ben Rhoda put together a solid game with 12 points on 5-of-7 shooting from the floor and Jerald Fields went 4-of-5 from the field and scored 11 points.

Summary: Appalachian State's Shawn Hall registered a career-high 37 points on 12-of-25 shooting from the floor as the Mountaineers (7-3, 1-0 SoCon) used a torrid shooting pace in their 108-94 victory over East Tennessee State at Holmes Center Monday night.

The Mountaineers netted 22-of-31 field goal tries (71 percent) in the second half and totaled 62.5 percent (40-of-64) for the game. The Apps made good on 7-of-9 tries from the floor over the last 6:28 to secure the victory.

After the Bucs' Tiras Wade scored four straight points to cut the Mountaineers' lead to five, at 71-66 with 11:31 left, the Apps followed with a run of their own. They pushed six straight points off of fast breaks to claim a 77-66 lead with 10:01 to play. The Mountaineers never trailed in the second half and led by as many as 16 en route to the win.

Junior forward Zakee Wadood finished with 15 points and equaled his season high with seven steals. Senior guard Ryan Lawson recorded 13 points, four steals and four assists in the losing effort. Junior Jerald Fields, nursing a sore ankle, contributed 11 points in 19 minutes off the bench.

One of the nation's best in creating steals East Tennessee State recorded 21. It equals the most ever recorded against an ASU squad. ETSU induced 27 turnovers while making 20 of its own.

Summary: Even though his team improved to 2-1 in Southern Conference play and won its 11th-straight home game dating back to last season, ETSU head basketball coach Ed DeChellis was still shaking his head following the Buccaneers 87-81 win over The Citadel Saturday at Memorial Center.

Giving up a lead of as much as 13 points midway through the second half, the Bucs struggled to put the Bulldogs away and allowed The Citadel to stay within striking distance throughout the contest. It was ETSU's second-straight difficult win at home -- the Bucs needed a last-second, tip-in basket last week to defeat UNC Greensboro in a nationally-televised game on ESPN2.

After trading baskets throughout the first half and trailing 40-37 at the intermission, ETSU put together an 13-3 offensive spurt at the 15:01 mark of the second half which took a 51-48 game and made it 64-51 with 10:38 left.

However, over the next six minutes The Citadel hit five 3-pointers and methodically cut the lead down to 75-70 with 5:17 left in the game. Four minutes later, a made lay-up by Max Mombollet at the 1:24 mark made it 85-81.

But the Bucs' defense held over the final minute and ETSU managed to get to the free-throw line with Zakee Wadood and Ben Rhoda both hitting one-of-two at the charity stripe to make the final 87-81.

Summary: Holding a lead of as much as 23 points in the second half, East Tennessee State's men's basketball team seemed well on its way to avenging an overtime loss to league rival College of Charleston in last year's Southern Conference Tournament. But then the Cougars made things interesting.

Trailing 48-25 with 13:18 left in the game, College of Charleston began to slowly whittle away at the Buccaneers lead and pulled to within three points at 62-59 with 24 seconds remaining. However, a pair of made free throws by junior Jerald Fields and some strong defensive play in the final seconds were enough for the Bucs to hold on and win 65-61 in front of 3,980 fans at Memorial Center.

Indeed, the Bucs -- who were giving up 74.7 points a contest and ranked 10th in the 12-team SoCon in scoring defense -- put the clamps on the Cougars (11-5, 1-2) in the first half. In all, Charleston hit on just 7-of-27 shots from the field for a shooting percentage of 25.9 percent before halftime. That poor effort allowed ETSU to build a 37-20 advantage by the intermission.
